Mr. Brett Bray
Director, Motor Vehicle Division
Texas Department of Transportation
P.O. Box 2293
Austin, Texas 78768

OR2002-3565

Dear Mr. Bray:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 165207.

The Texas Department of Transportation (the "department") received a request for all information contained in the last two Manufacturer/Distributor License Renewal Applications for E-Ton Distribution, LP ("E-Ton"). You indicate that some responsive information has been released to the requestor. You state that you will redact certain motor vehicle record information and social security numbers in accordance with previous determinations of this office, but state that you do not wish to withhold any other information. See Open Records Letter Nos. 2001-6050 (2001); 2001-4775 (2001); see also Open Records Decision No. 673 at 7-8 (2001) (criteria of previous determination for information in specific, clearly delineated categories). You have, however, notified the third party, E-Ton, of the request for information and of the third party's opportunity to submit comments to this office. See Gov't Code § 552.305 (permitting interested third party to submit to attorney general reasons why requested information should not be released); Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (determining that statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception to disclosure in certain circumstances).

An interested third party is allowed 10 business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code

§ 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have not received any correspondence from the third party. Thus, the third party has provided no basis for withholding the submitted information. See, e.g., Gov't Code § 552.110(b); Open Records Decision Nos. 661 at 5-6 (1999) (to prevent disclosure of commercial or financial information, party must show by specific factual evidence, not conclusory or generalized allegations, that release of requested information would cause that party substantial competitive harm); Open Records Decision Nos. 552 at 5 (1990) (party must establish prima facie case that information is trade secret), 542 at 3 (1990).

We note that certain information is protected by section 552.136 of the Government Code. The Seventy-seventh Legislature added section 552.136 to chapter 552 of the Government Code.¹ This newly enacted exception to public disclosure makes certain account number information confidential, and provides in relevant part:

(a) In this section, "access device" means a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to:

- (1) obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value; or
- (2) initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.

Gov't Code § 552.136. We have marked the account number information that the department must withhold under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information and social security numbers for which it has been granted previous determinations. The marked account number must be withheld from public disclosure under section 552.136. The remainder of the submitted information must be released to the requestor.

¹The Legislature also enacted two other bills that add a section 552.136 to chapter 552. House Bill 2589 makes certain e-mail addresses confidential. See Act of May 22, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 545, § 5, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 974, 975 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.136). Senate Bill 15 makes information maintained by family violence shelter centers confidential. See Act of May 3, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 143, § 1, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 279 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.136). Senate Bill 694 also enacted the same language as House Bill 2589 regarding the confidentiality of e-mail addresses, but codified it as section 552.137 of the Government Code. See Act of May 14, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 356, § 1, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 614 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.137).

Finally, you ask for a previous determination allowing the department to withhold from disclosure without seeking an open records ruling leases, financial information, telephone verifications, copies of checks, maps, and copies of telephone book listings under section 552.101 in conjunction with the common law right to privacy. We decline to issue such a previous determination at this time.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Cindy Nettles
Assistant Attorney General
